Third party donation return – 2008 general election

The financial agent of every listed third party must file a donation return and accompanying statutory declaration(s) with the Electoral Commission by 10 March 2009 – at the same time that the election expense form is filed.

If there are no donations to be disclosed then a nil return is required.

You are advised to familiarise yourself with part 2 of the Electoral Finance Act 2007. The definition of a third party donation is attached at the end of the form.
