Third party donation return – 2008 general election

The financial agent of every listed third party must file a donation return and accompanying statutory declaration(s) with the Electoral Commission by 10 March 2009 – at the same time that the election expense form is filed.

If there are no donations to be disclosed then a nil return is required.

You are advised to familiarise yourself with part 2 of the Electoral Finance Act 2007. The definition of a third party donation is attached at the end of the form.

0 Items that contained a promoter statement that are not included in the expense return
 - 2008 party election expenses component

This component is not compulsory, but challenges relating to expense returns may question why a particular item has not been included. Listing items here, with the reason why the associated expenses were not included, may forestall these questions.

killthebill.org.nz website	The expense was trivial (no payment was made for it and the value of hosting was a few dollars a month), and the site was primarily focused on the issue of the Electoral Finance Bill and Act, rather than advocating against political parties, and mainly consisted of an aggregation of content from individual blogs.
